

The title is centered within a decorative wreath made of yellow leaves and small yellow flowers on a light blue background.

Certificate Course On Narrative Therapy

Date: 4th, 5th and 6th April

Time: 10 am to 4 pm

Venue: Children First,
Safdarjung Enclave

If you are a counselor, therapist, psychologist, psychiatrist, teacher, special educator, or just a student of life and you are keen to enhance and transform the way you work and live then this course is for you.

Dr. Shelja Sen,
Family Therapist

COURSE TRAINERS

Ms. Jonaki Arora,
Therapist

COURSE CONTENTS

- Introduction to Narrative Therapy
- Externalization
- Re-remembering & Re-authoring conversations
- Scaffolding conversations
- Outside - Witness Groups
- Tree of Life: Use of art in narrative form to heal trauma in children

The course is “hands on” (80% skill building and 20% theory).

The main tools for learning will be role-plays, story telling, play, group discussions and video/movie clips. As this is an intensive course – the group size will be small

REGISTRATION AND FEE

- Please send in your registrations to Mr Puneet Chityal at this address:
A/2/35 Safdarjung Enclave New Delhi 110029
- The cheque should be payable to Children First Mental Health Institute Private Ltd.
- For online payment details, cancellation policies, payment through installments and further enquiries regarding the course, email our Training Coordinators at training@childrenfirstindia.com
- The total fee of the course is Rs 11500. Payment includes Dr Sen's book Reclaim Your Life along with lunch, tea/coffee, reading material. 10% discount available for early bird registrations (till 15th March 2019).

